Dough Momma Pizzeria in La Jolla Shores has announced the winner of its Kids' Design Your Own Pizza Contest.

Dani Trejo, 7, won the contest with his pizza that features grilled carne asada, refried bean sauce, mozzarella cheese, red onions, jalapenos and cilantro. He won a pizza party for his family, and his creation is now featured on Dough Momma's menu.

Dough Momma chose the winner from entries submitted by local schools and families of ConnectMed, a nonprofit that secures ongoing care for children with physical differences from birth defects or traumas.

Through Feb. 14, customers ordering from Dough Momma online can round up their bill to donate to ConnectMed.
